

I stole the stars tonight (Franny 2017)

so present, so surreal, through liquid blinds, devine, devine Samantha Soleil, more a town than a name in my head, in my mind, allein, alive with some shadows in my room what a lovely afternoon maman maman, maman maman who stole the stars tonight ?

It's comin home, it's in the skies and my wardrobe
All that I loved has passed me by in some sad songs I wrote

Baal, what is mine ? so cast away from Sally Hayes to Sweet and Lowdown the lights are so much brighter, downtown mirror, mirror, that's my alltime high and low, that's all I want to live houses and lanes of paper maché silver lawn overture, hear emily play my sister cried in her sleep the day she went I knew I wouldn't see her again copper river, silver daws lost in fridays lost in thoughts

maman maman, maman maman
who stole the stars tonight ?

„Never get old“ scrawled on the wall what shall I do ?
All that I loved made me move on with my sad songs I wrote marchons maman

marchons maman
aux armes, mein kleiner Traum, formez les bataillons I've been waiting here for so long and all this time that passed me by maman, maman, who stole the stars tonight
I stole the stars tonight
